

Trade Fair Visa

If Germany or Austria is your main destination in order to attend a trade fair as an exhibitor or a visitor with your stay not exceeding 90 days and you are in possession of an invitation letter by the organising trade fair, which states you as an exhibitor or visitor, you will need to apply for a trade fair visa.

Based on the submitted documents, the Consulate General will need to verify your purpose of stay, sufficient funds and a motivation to return to Canada.

The visa application may be submitted at the earliest 6 months prior to the planned trip and should be submitted no later than 15 days prior to departure. The visa section endeavors to process applications as timely as possible. As a general guideline, processing of an application for a visitor visa with full set of required documents may take up to 15 days. In justified cases where further investigation is necessary or information needs to be sourced, processing time may be extended to up to 45 days. No expedited processing time will be guaranteed for late applications.

The list below shall assist you in having all of the following documentation prepared in the given order before you come to your visa appointment. Incomplete documentation may result in the rejection of your application.

You have to submit your application in person. Please note that fingerprints will still have to be taken from all applicants.

All documents need to be presented in the given order in original. Should you wish to keep any originals, kindly provide an additional copy.

Please prepare your documents in the order indicated below and submit with a print-out of the list:
