

Information Sheet and Checklist Study Visa (Section 16b German Residence Act)

General information

- General processing time for a complete application is about 6-8 weeks; in specific cases e.g. upon request of German authorities it might take longer.
- The visa can only be issued upon approval of the competent aliens authority in Germany.
- Please take note that some authorities in Germany may require documents translated into German and with proof of authenticity (for Canada: legalization).
- No flight reservation is required at the time of your appointment; please book your trip only after having received your passport including visa.
- All holders of a national visa are by law required to register with the local registration office within 2 weeks after moving in. Please refer to the requirements on the website of your local registration office for further information.
- A study visa is a national visa, which entitles you to enter other countries in the Schengen zone for a stay of up to 90 days within 180 days.
- Please refrain from inquiries about the state of processing during the regular processing time as the visa section is not able to answer these.
- Further information regarding living and working in Germany is available at www.make-it-in-germany.com.

Foreign students who have been admitted by a German university (possibly with a preparatory language course) or who have been accepted by a preparatory college ("Studienkolleg") can apply for a visa to study in Germany. It is advisable to take care of the admission or confirmation of the university as early as possible.

You can work part-time during your studies.

You can seek for a job upon completion of the study program.

Please prepare 2 identical sets of application documents with all of the following documents in the order indicated below and submit with a print-out of the list.

Original documents will be returned to you while a copy per set will be required.

Please not that incomplete applications will be decided based on the documents submitted and may result in the rejection of your application.
