

Information Sheet and Checklist Visa for Seekers of a Qualified Vocational Traineeship (Section 17 German Residence Act)

General information

- General processing time for a complete application is about 4 weeks; in specific cases e.g. upon request of German authorities it might take longer.
- - Please take note that some authorities in Germany may require documents translated into German and with proof of authenticity (for Canada: legalization).
- - No flight reservation is required at the time of your appointment; please book your trip only after having received your passport including visa.
- - All holders of a national visa are by law required to register with the local registration office within 2 weeks after moving in. Please see refer to the requirements on the website of your local registration office for further information.
- - A visa for the search of a qualified vocational traineeship is a national visa which entitles you to enter other countries in the Schengen zone for a stay of up to 90 days within 180 days.
- Please refrain from inquiries about the state of processing during the regular processing time as the visa section is not able to answer these.
- Further information regarding living and working in Germany is available at www.make-it-in-germany.com.

You may enter Germany in order to search for a qualified vocational traineeship purpose if you:

- have very good knowledge of German (level B2), AND
- are below age 25.

The maximum stay is limited to 6 months. If you find a company within the period of validity of your visa, you may apply for a residence permit for the purpose of starting a qualified vocational training at your local alien authority. If you were unable to find a suitable traineeship position, the visa cannot be extended and you will have to leave Germany instead, and stay outside of Germany for at least the same amount of time as you had spent in Germany.

The visa does not entitle the holder to take up employment.

Please prepare 2 identical sets of application documents with all of the following documents in the order indicated below and submit with a print-out of the list.

Original documents will be returned to you while a copy per set will be required.

Please not that incomplete applications will be decided based on the documents submitted and may result in the rejection of your application.
