

Family reunion with foreign spouse or children

General information

- General processing time for a complete application is about 8 - 12 weeks; in specific cases e.g. upon request of German authorities it might take longer.
- The visa only can be issued upon approval of the competent Aliens Authority in Germany.
- Please take note that some authorities in Germany may require documents translated into German and with proof of authenticity (for Canada: legalization).
- No flight reservation is required at the time of your appointment; please book your trip only after having received your passport including visa.
- All holders of a national visa are by law required to register with the local registration office within 2 weeks after moving in. Please refer to the requirements on the website of your local registration office for further information.
- A visa for family reunion is a national, which entitles you to enter other countries in the Schengen zone for a stay up to 90 days within 180 days.
- Please refrain from inquiries about the state of processing during the regular processing time as the visa section is not able to answer these.

If you are married or get married to a foreign citizen (non EU), or if you are a parent of a minor child living in Germany and wish to seek gainful permanent residency in Germany (or staying in Germany longer than 3 months) in order to live with your family, it is required to obtain a residence permit in the form of a visa.

Upon submission of ALL the required documents, the application will be forwarded to the competent German Aliens Authority ("Ausländeramt"). Permanent residence visa applications take up to 12 weeks to be processed. After the application has been approved by the Aliens Authority, the German Consulate will issue a residence permit in the form of a visa with the duration for the first 90 days. A final residence permit will be granted in Germany by the Aliens Authority. This kind of residence permit does also include a work permit.

Please prepare 2 identical sets of application documents with all of the following documents in the order indicated below and submit with a print-out of the list.

Original documents will be returned to you while a copy per set will be required.

Please not that incomplete applications will be decided based on the documents submitted and may result in the rejection of your application.

Please note that the German Consulate reserves the right to ask for additional documents or information deemed necessary for processing your application at any time during processing and assumes no responsibility for applications submitted too close to your planned departure. Submission of the above-mentioned documents does not guarantee that a visa is granted.

Additional information regarding German language skills

In order to facilitate integration, visa applicants generally must prove basic German skills when applying for a visa.

Competency in the German language in this case means that the applicant has the ability to communicate in German on at least a basic level, i.e. holds a certificate of successful completion of a German language course level A1 according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. Certificates issued by an institution which performs testing in accordance with the standards of the Association of Language Testers in Europe (ALTE) are accepted. These requirements are only met by the Goethe-Institute. For information on language tests at the Goethe-Institute, please visit their webpage: www.goethe.de

Exceptions:

- If the applicant is married to a citizen of the EU (other than Germany), German language skills are not required according to the FreizügG/EU
- If the applicant is married to a citizen of Australia, Israel, Japan, Canada, the Republic of Korea, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, the United States of America, Andorra, Brazil, El Salvador, Honduras, Monaco or San Marino, German language skills are not required.

Other exceptions may apply. This can only be determined after reviewing ALL documents during your appointment.
